12 KSIĘŻY MŁYN
FILM MUSEUM
PL. ZWYCIĘSTWA 1

"Księży Młyn" (A) is the name given to the largest factory-residential complex in Łódź, created by Karol Scheibler. It includes factory buildings, housing estates, owners' residences, hospitals and a fire station. The former palace of Scheibler houses the Film Museum (B), the one and only museum dedicated to the history of cinema in Poland.

13 THE JEWISH CEMETERY
BRACKA 40 (ENTRANCE FROM ZMIENNA ST.)

The largest Jewish cemetery in Poland and one of the largest in Europe. The monumental mausoleum of Izrael Poznański can be found here. It was here that during the Second World War Jewish people from the Łitzmannstadt Ghetto were buried. Their burial sites can be seen in the 'Ghetto Field'. Above all, the cemetery is a rich source of knowledge about Jewish traditions down the years.
